Love My Spiritual Family

"Treat everyone you meet with dignity. Love your spiritual family. Revere God."

1 Peter 2:17 (MSG)

"Every time you cross my mind, I break out in exclamations of thanks to God."

Philippians 1:3 (MSG)

Dear Spiritual Family!

As I pen this letter to you it has been one month since my dad departed this world to life eternal with Jesus. It was one of the most emotional and rewarding times in my pastoral career. In those moments when I was with my family and preparing my dad to transition from this world to life eternal, I got the opportunity to be both a son and a pastor. I was able to talk with my dad about the grace and forgiveness of God, the love of Jesus, and the beauty of heaven. I had the opportunity to read the Scriptures that brought a sense of peace and comfort, sing songs that made us cry as it spoke of the majesty of God, and to pray that the God of mercy would be gracious and loving to my dad. He did not disappoint. Being able to usher my dad into the heavenly realm was the most blessed event that God allowed me the privilege to experience.

One of the greatest things about having a close family is being able to share such spiritual and meaningful experiences together. His whole family was there to say their 'good-bye's' as emotional as it was. When the Lord called him home, my dad was surrounded by the people who meant the most to him, his loving wife of 57 years, his four children and his favorite daughter-in-law (yes, that would be Miss Kendra)! As dad took his last breath, the tears flowed from our eyes and yet there was a sense of peace and joy in his room. You see, my dad would no longer be suffering. There would be no more COPD, no more liver and kidney issues, no more pain. He would be made whole again. My niece, Courtney, who is a NICU Nurse at Dupont Children's Hospital, asked if she could honor my dad (her Pop-pop) by 'cleansing' him before the funeral home came to pick him up. As we sat in the living room, we heard the wonderful spiritual songs of 'Amazing Grace' and 'How Great Thou Art' being played on her iPhone as she washed my dad clean, making him look 'spiffy.' When I went back to check on her, I stood in the doorway and witnessed a young woman respecting her grandfather in such a way that brought honor and dignity to him and glory to God. What a blessing to witness.

Then came the planning and executing of dad's Celebration of Life Service. Words cannot describe the love, joy, and humility experienced by my family when we were showered by the countless number of people who came to show their love and support. Kendra and I were humbled beyond belief when we witnessed members of St. Peter's come walking through the door to pay their respect. To think that you would drive five hours to a dinky town in the eastern part of the state, brought tears to my eyes and put a lump in my throat. I am reminded of Paul's words to the Philippian church that he broke out in 'exclamations of thanks to God' when he thought of them. I can honestly say I have done the same. And then later in my devotions, Peter expressed a sentiment that we should 'love your spiritual family.' Please know that I knew I had a special congregation, but after receiving hundreds of sympathy cards, wonderful gifts in honor of my dad, and memorial contributions to Tri-County Hospice and both Trinity Reformed Church and St. Peter's Reformed Church, I can say without hesitation that I 'love my spiritual family!' You showed honor and dignity to my dad, and love and support to your pastor. Thank you for being the church and surrounding us with support. And thank you for being our friends and surrounding us with love. We are blessed ... and God was glorified.

Continue to be the church by reaching out, reaching up, and reaching in. Allow the outside world to see in you a reflection of Jesus. My life has been profoundly impacted by your presence, your words, and your prayers. Thank you ...

Blessings and love,

Pastor Jim Bertoti

From the President ...

As we come off a successful annual congregational meeting, I want to thank the congregation for their attendance and attention as we reviewed what happened in 2019 and talked of what we would like to happen in 2020. Personally, it was an honor to entertain the motion to send $1000 to the Janet Helms Building Fund for St. Andrew's High School in Kenya in recognition of Pam North's 36 years of service to St. Peter's. That is an incredibly long time, covering two different positions and we appreciate it.

In 2020, we're asking for everyone's involvement as we move forward. A clipboard will shortly be hanging by the mailboxes allowing anyone to add or volunteer on any project in three categories – things that need fixed, things consistory should consider, and longer-term projects. If you see something you think needs done, write it down so it can be done or discussed. If you have the time to do one of the projects on the list, go ahead, just mark it as done. Working together, we can achieve so much more.

In His Service,
Bill Allmann

Women's Ministry News

We met in January to plan our upcoming events and to do some cleaning of the church kitchen. A BIG thank you to the following ladies that helped me with these tasks: Sally Hamilton, GeorgAnn Fogel, Thelma Jacobs, Sandy Lee, Pam North, Kay O'Neill and Ginni Smoke. A lot was accomplished in a few hours!! Also, I wish to thank Judy Double for the large task of cleaning the hood above the stove.

February 8th we will meet at 10 am to 12 noon for the Secret Sis reveal and view a video Bible study on Deborah: Fight Like a Girl. This is one woman of the bible that I have not studied before, but I have found that she has a lot to teach us as she was called by God to lead during a time that seemed hopeless for His people. Plan to come and join us even if you are not part of the Secret Sis reveal for a time of learning and fellowship. If you are part of the Secret Sis event you may bring small gift to give to your Secret Sis.

We have been asked to help with a cookie reception on Saturday, February 29th in the Meet and Greet area after Andrew Double's ordination service. I am looking for cookies to be donated and for help on that Saturday. Please see Marla or Pam North if you are able to donate cookies or help that day.

In March we will not have an official meeting. We will be having a Homemade Easter Candy Sale to support the Youth Mission Trip this summer. Candy will be sold on Sunday, March 29th before and after church, as well on April 5th, and Maundy Thursday, April 9th. I am looking for women to help make candy to donate for this sale and to help set up and sale the candy on those dates. Anyone interested in making candy with Marla Clouse may join her at her home on March 21st or you make candy on your own to donate to this fundraiser. Any help with this project is greatly appreciated. Please contact Marla at 724-622-2264 if you are able to help in any way or if you have any questions.

Thursday, April 23rd will be our Children of the King Banquet at 6:00 pm in the Fellowship Room catered by Nancy Korczynski.. Note the change from Daughters of the King to CHILDREN of the King because we are including young boys as well as all the women and girls of our church and your family. Our entertainment this year will be provided by Cindy Speck, a ventriloquist, and her puppets. Mark your calendars for this dinner and fun evening together. More details to follow with menu and purchase of tickets.

Blessings as we serve our Lord together,
Marla Clouse

Volunteer Ministry News

From the pen of Pam

“Do small things with great love.” (One of my favorite quotes from Mother Theresa, whose life has been an inspiration to me and has guided me in all aspects of my life and ministry.)

Here we are at the beginning of a brand new decade, and here I am at the end of seven years serving as Director of Volunteer Ministries, a privilege I count near and dear to my heart. As I prepared to write this report and took the time to reflect on this past year, I came to the conclusion that not only had 2019 flown by, but that it really seemed as though my beginning the role as DVM in February 2013 had just occurred! As I now prepare to conclude this important chapter in my life, I am aware of how much I have grown in my own spiritual life as I have dealt with both the challenges and rewards of the ministry responsibilities I have been entrusted with here at St. Peter's. I have learned a great deal from many people and have rejoiced in the deep relationships God has given to me within my church family, particularly with those who are the 'senior' members of our church. And I have enjoyed cheering on the volunteer ministry leaders and participants as I have observed their dedication and commitment to serving God with the gifts He has given to them. To accomplish much both inside and outside the church walls is what the Lord desires from us and I can attest to the fact that both our service and worship ministries have consistently held to that mandate, and I am excited to see what my brothers and sisters in-Christ will continue to do in the future.

In closing, I want to thank Pastor Jim, Sheri, Aubrey, Heather, Sharyn, Bill (along with Jeannie Bauman, Janet Rogan, and Ed Knauff, who were right there with me from the beginning) and my entire church family because each of you who I've grown to know (some for many years, some perhaps for just a few months) has touched my life and helped me to do what God called me to do. No surprise in that – that's what families do for each other – but you need to know that I am truly more complete for having you in my life, and I look forward to continuing that connection. I will now officially be joining the ranks of the many St. Peter's volunteers serving Jesus – being His 'hands and feet' and striving to reach the 'least, the lost, and the lonely' as our mission statement states – and I know that I will receive the same great rewards as I have during these past seven years. Please join me in not only continuing to come alongside and support Pastor Jim as he shepherds and leads us, but also to be at the ready to help and encourage Andrew Double in his role as our Pastoral Intern for these next two years. The good news for all of us is that as we individually and corporately set our sights on what the Lord would have us do and then dig in with passion and zeal, we have many assurances from His Word (Matthew 28:20b and Hebrews 13:5b to name just a few verses) that He will be with us all the way!

In Christ's Service,

Pam North (striving to “Do small things with great love” in all the days of 2020 and beyond!)

Dear St. Peter's Family,

Thank you so much for the awesome, generous Christmas gift. We are continually amazed and blessed by the generosity of our church family. Ministering with you all is such a joy and we thank our God every time we think of you.

Thank you also for the wonderful support, prayers and love extended to us and our family at the passing of dad. The planter was lovely, the many cards conveying love and sympathy were comforting, and the presence of so many at dad's service was humbling and special. We are blessed!

Love, PJ and Kendra

Dear St. Peter's Family,

Thank you so much for the beautiful arrangement of flowers for my 90th birthday. What a nice surprise! I love flowers. I had a wonderful week celebrating with my family and friends. Now, I am looking forward to a new and healthy New Year! God Bless you all.

Sincerely, June English

Dear St. Peter's,

I am writing to let you know how much I appreciate your recent gift to Samaritan's Purse. We are deeply grateful for your partnership in this ministry. Please pray for our staff and volunteers working to share the Good News of Jesus Christ and bring relief to hurting people here at home and around the world. "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved" (John 3:17). Your support means more than you know. May God richly bless you in this new year.

Sincerely, Franklin Graham

Dear St. Peter's Family,

Thank you so much for the outpouring of cards, homemade meals, the beautiful prayer shawl that Bea knit, assistance and prayers during my November surgery and subsequent recovery. Your generosity warmed our hearts (and stomachs) many evenings; the cards still displayed in our living room brighten each day; and the people who helped with Landon, household tasks and kept my spirits up are so appreciated. Thank you again!

Sincerely, Laurie Cowin

Dear St. Peter's Church Family,

I'm so blessed to have my son at this church. I want to thank you all for your thoughtfulness and prayers that you have given our family. I will be coming out around Easter to see you all. I truly miss seeing everyone. Thank you again from the bottom of my heart and God Bless.

Love, Ronnie & Joe Bertoti

LIBRARY HIGHLIGHTS FOR FEBRUARY - READ ALL ABOUT IT!!!!

As we move ahead into the second month of 2020, I hope you continue to curl up under a warm blanket and enjoy reading from the many selections of both fiction and non-fiction we have available in our church library. Listed below are three new fiction and five new non-fiction books recently added to our church library:

"A Secret to Die For" by Lisa Harris: 'When one of her clients is murdered, Grace quickly realizes that computer security specialist Stephen Shaw wasn't suffering from paranoia. What she doesn't know is that someone believes Shaw gave her a vital piece of information before he died—and they are ready to silence her at any cost. Her only hope may be an old friend, Detective Nate Quinn, who has just been cleared for active duty after a bombing killed his partner and left him dealing with PTSD.'

"Hadassah Queen Esther of Persia" by Diana Wallis Taylor: 'One of the great heroines of the Old Testament, Hadassah was a beautiful maiden who put her faith in God and her guardian, her cousin Mordecai. When a royal commandment goes out that virgins throughout Persia are to be taken to King Xerxes' palace, Hadassah is among them. Instructed by Mordecai to hide for Jewish identity, she assumes the Persian name Esther. The book of Esther says this young Jewish girl "pleased" Hegai, the keeper of the harem, and "won his favor." And Xerxes loved her so much that she was crowned queen. But what was Esther like? Why was Hegai so kind to her? How did she win the admiration of everyone who met her—and secure the king's heart?

"Ruth Mother of Kings" by Diana Wallis Taylor: 'The story of Ruth has captivated Christian believers for centuries, not least of all because she is one of only two women with books of the Bible named after them. Experience Ruth's elation as a young bride—and her grief at finding herself a widow far before her time. Witness the unspeakable relief of Naomi upon hearing her daughter-in-law promise never to leave her. And celebrate with Boaz when, after years as a widower, he discovers love again, with a woman he first found gleaning in his field. The story of this remarkable woman to whom Jesus Christ traced his lineage comes to life in the pages of this dramatic retelling.

"Whisper-How to Hear the Voice of God" by Mark Batterson: 'Most people would say they're unsure. But His voice is all around us, all the time! His ability to speak is not limited by our human range of hearing. So, if you want to hear His voice, you just need to learn some new ways to listen. Nothing will change your life's trajectory or determine your destiny like a whisper from God. That's how we discern the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God and seize divine appointments. It's also the way bold visions are birthed and unprecedented miracles are ushered in. Through powerful stories and practical advice, New York Times best-selling author Mark Batterson shows how natural it is for believers to hear the voice of God. He reveals the obstacles to hearing the seven creative ways God speaks to His children and the value of having a "whispering spot" where you listen for His voice. The question isn't whether God speaks. The question is, what does He have to say to you?'

"Lies Men Believe-And The Truth That Sets Them Free" by Robert Wolgemuth: 'You are being hunted. Like a seasoned angler, our enemy opens his tackle box and selects the lure most likely to attract his intended prey... and sometimes it's the bait you and I are least likely to consider a big deal. But each lie—about God, ourselves, sin, work, family, money, and more— we bite on ambushes our hearts and makes us a little less free. So it's time to embrace Jesus—the Savior—and humbly ask Him to fill us with His Spirit and fight back for us. It's time to uncover Satan's schemes and then wield the key weapon God has given us in this battle—the Truth. If you can't shake the feeling that your life isn't turning out as you had hoped and you want more, and if you're ready to root out the lies the enemy is throwing your way... you're ready for this book. You were made for freedom. Here's your ticket to get there.'

“Having a Mary Heart in a Martha World” by Joanna Weaver: ‘The life of a woman today isn't really all that different from that of Mary and Martha in the New Testament. Like Mary, you long to sit at the Lord's feet... but the daily demands of a busy world just won't leave you alone. Like Martha, you love Jesus and really want to serve him... yet you struggle with weariness, resentment, and feelings of inadequacy. Then comes Jesus, into the midst of your busy life, to extend the same invitation he issued long ago to the two sisters from Bethany. Tenderly, he invites you to choose “the better part” - a joyful life of intimacy with him that flows naturally into loving serve. With her fresh approach to the familiar Bible story, Joanna Weaver shows how all of us—Marys and Marthas alike—can draw closer to our Lord: deepening our devotion, strengthening our service, and doing both with less stress and greater joy. This includes a twelve-week companion Bible Study.

“The Case for Miracles” A Journalist Investigates Evidence for the Supernatural by Lee Strobel: ‘We live in an age when many people scoff at the idea that God intervenes in our everyday world. Yet as this eye-opening book demonstrates, God's supernatural activities in the Bible as well as today are both credible and astounding. Award-winning author Lee Strobel begins by inviting renowned skeptic Michael Shermer to build his strongest case against miracles—and then Strobel digs out evidence to respond to Shermer's claims and build a compelling affirmative case for divine intervention in our world today. Strobel then offers a poignant treatment of the most controversial aspect of the miraculous: What about miracles that don't happen despite our fervent pleas for help? What should we do when our miracle-working God seems silent? A former skeptic, Strobel also discloses stories of how God has touched his own life—showing once more how God remains at work in our world, sometimes openly, sometimes mysteriously, but always in ways that draw us closer to himself.’

“Truth Matters, Life Matters More” The Unexpected Beauty of an Authentic Christian Life by Hank Hanegraaff: ‘Leading Christian apologist Hank Hanegraaff has dedicated his life to defending truth, because truth matters. However, his life and ministry were radically transformed by this three-word phrase: life matters more. Truth matters—it truly matters. Comprehending that Christianity is firmly rooted in history and evidence is critical in these times of collective doubt and crumbling institutions. But as important as truth is, its value pales in comparison to life experienced in union with God. To say that truth matters but life matters more is to submit to a mystery that is to be experienced rather than explained. It is not a prohibition of knowledge; it is a transcending of knowledge. If we relegate Christian faith to a headful of knowledge—mental assent to logical truth propositions—we are in danger of devolving into a transactional rather than transformational relationship with God. Prepare for a personal pilgrimage past intellectually knowing about God to experientially knowing him in Christ. Truth Matters, Life Matters More is a modern classic and the magnum opus of one of the great theological minds of our time.

Please stop in the church library and take a look around to see what you can ‘check out’ and cozy up in a warm blanket with a good book!!
