Pastor Mauri's Musings

God works in mysterious ways. How often have we heard this, or said this ourselves? From a theological perspective, it is our way of trying to describe the providence of God.

In our current situation, I am humbled by the fact that God providentially brought us back together as a pastor and people - this time, however, as your Interim Pastor. It's been twenty years since I departed St. Peter's to accept the call to a congregation in Illinois. I never dreamed that this scenario would ever occur. I officially retired over five years ago, but have since realized that a pastor should never "officially" say he is retired. When God calls you to pastoral ministry, it is a lifetime call. I am grateful for the opportunity you have given me to serve you once again. It will be a blessing for Terry and I to reconnect with many old friends, and to make new ones who have become a part of this church family since 2002.

Pastor Jim, or "PJ", as he was affectionately called, served you faithfully for 18 years, and accepted a call to another congregation. You now find yourselves in transition. Transitions are challenging because you are in that in-between time. It can be an emotional roller coaster and people deal with it differently.

Some might find it to be a frightening, unsettling time, and want the search process to get started quickly so everything can "get back to normal." Other folks are paralyzed by the change and transition. They might pretend it's not happening, and put on a happy or stoic face instead of acknowledging difficult feelings. Some may drag their feet as the process of self-study and searching for a new pastor begins. Or, you may get comfortable in our time of transition and don't want it to move too quickly. Still others of you may find this transition an exciting opportunity - a time to take stock, reflect on who you are as a congregation, and on what God is calling you to do and to be moving forward.

My goal will be to help you negotiate all these difficult feelings and to keep a steady hand on the ship as you sail through choppy waters. My conviction is that the Holy Spirit will be behind all our labors, working quietly and relentlessly. We are not going to be going through the motions to seek your new pastor but will be seeking the mind of Christ and discerning together how the wind of the Spirit is blowing and guiding the ship that is St. Peter's Reformed Church.

Please pray earnestly for me, the leadership, and the congregation as a whole as we begin this journey together over the coming months.

*Expectantly,
Pastor Mauri*

From the president...

Dear St. Peter's,

I hope this newsletter finds you and your family well. As we move into June and the summer season begins in full swing, life can get increasingly busy. I pray that St. Peter's will stay an important part of your summer.

I want to thank and acknowledge all the guest ministers that have served the needs of St. Peter's from late January until the end of May. We are blessed to pull together such persons who share the Good News of Jesus. We are also thankful for Rev. Mauri Smith for filling in full time as our interim pastor starting in June.

As for the Senior Pastor search, not much has changed since last month. We, Elders and Consistory are continuing the process. Discussions on the search committee and possible chair continue to be on the forefront. We are close to launching a congregation wide survey, stay tuned. The other survey we mentioned with a small group of 30 is not finalized yet. Consistory is committed to making sure this the best possible solution and we pray for God's guidance in our actions.

I have tried to be transparent to all with thought and process of consistory. If anyone has questions or thoughts, please reach out to me to discuss.

Kind regards,
Ron Double

Women's Ministry News

Thank you for your support of the Promise of Life Network. Your donations of baby formula, diapers, and monetary gifts are truly appreciated to help meet their needs at this time. Please continue to pray for this organization and all pregnancy care centers to help reach those in need.

Women's Ministry will NOT be meeting during the months of June, July and August. Please continue to help support the various ministries at St. Peter's throughout the summer months.

Blessings to You,
Marla Clouse

St. Peter's would like to recognize all our high school, college, technical/trade school graduates in the July Newsletter. If you would like to have your son or daughter acknowledged, please let Sheri know as soon as possible by email at smcmaster@stpzelie.org and please give her any information regarding which school your child attended and what his/her future plans are. If possible, please submit a graduation picture.

The deadline for submitting all information and pictures is Monday, June 27th. Thank You!

Simply Singles

Please join Simply Singles for a picnic on Sunday, June 12 at 5 p.m. at Sue Hamilton's house, 117 Southview Drive, Harmony -- Just bring a dish to share. Don't stay home alone -- come and join us! Please call Nancy at 724-601-4442, or Sue at 724-504-9156, to RSVP for the picnic so that we can make sure there are accommodations and food for everyone!

St. Peter's is looking for anyone who would be interested in providing Special Music during our Sunday Worship Services. So if you know someone that would be willing to share their talents, please reach out to Scott McMaster, Pam North, or Sally Hamilton.

PENTECOST SUNDAY COMMUNION June 5, 2022
Far East Broadcasting Company (FEBC)

Our Pentecost Sunday Communion offering in June will be going to Far East Broadcasting Company (FEBC) which is an interdenominational ministry whose sole purpose is to share the Good News of Jesus Christ to the world through radio, the Internet, and emerging technologies.

We communicate the Good News among the nations by media to inspire people to follow Jesus Christ. One of our key focus areas in the world is between the lines of latitude 40 degrees and 10 degrees north of the equator. This portion of the planet contains 4.65 billion people, 69 nations, and the greatest amount of the world's most unreached people. Since some of these areas are hostile to the Gospel or difficult to reach, we embrace the unique media technologies that work for a particular region and use those technologies to proclaim the Good News into each country. This varies from shortwave radio, which has been around since we began 75 years ago, to the distribution of new cell phone SD cards containing the Gospel message. Whatever technology is needed, however, it is used to proclaim the Gospel boldly – even in the face of persecution. And, praise God, the message of Jesus Christ is reaching hearts who otherwise would have had no way to hear the message.

Additional details may be found at <https://www.febc.org/>

The We Care group, once again, had enjoyable visits with our shut-in members this past May 9, 10 and 11. We took them gifts of various patriotic door/wall hangings. They loved them and were very appreciative. They are fun to talk with and have so many memories they like to share. Fifteen were visited: Russell & Esther Robertson, Dorothy Knauf, June English, Shirley Allmann, Harvey Rice, Mary Lou Pietrusinski, Flo Gross, Larry Rape, Ralph Geis, Rosemarie Christian, Birdetta Kennedy, Eleanor Kennedy, Linda Rape and Earl Gilliland. Those we could not visit this time were Kate Steeb, Joanne Kampas, Millie Waybright and Shirley Wahl.

Thank you to all who visited this time: Gary & Shirley Knauf, Sharyn McMaster, Ginni Smoke, Sally Hamilton, Syd & Joan Schiever, Bea Barna, Susie Rape, Pam North, Pam Bintrim, Cathy Rape, Thelma Jacobs, Kay O'Neill, Sandy Lee, Debbie Kirsch and Marla Clouse. We all were blessed by these visits. Those who were unable to visit this time: Dick & Cathy Powell, John & Dottie Schulte, Harold Herr, Lynn Meyers & Judy Williams.

If you know someone who would benefit from being visited, please let me or any one of these people know.

Together in Christ,
Sharyn McMaster

REACHING OUT THROUGH OUTREACH MINISTRIES by Pam North

First of all, I want to thank the leadership of St. Peter's for giving me the opportunity to come back on staff to resume the work I had been doing as Director of Volunteer Ministries. The title of the position has changed slightly (I will refer to that more at the end of this article), but the responsibilities have remained largely the same. I am humbled and grateful to be able to get back to working with our volunteer ministries in an official capacity and also to oversee our church's outreach to our senior members, particularly those who can no longer attend our worship services and be involved in the ways they used to be.

In this first article that I am writing, I want to highlight two of our volunteer ministries, both of which at the end of 2021 needed to have new leaders, and because there were two people willing to step out in faith, both ministries carried on with no interruption. Those ministries are our We Care visitation team (Sally Hamilton stepped down after facilitating this group for the last several years) and our Ding-a-Ling handbell choir (which had been directed by Kendra Bertoti since its beginning many years ago).

'WE CARE'

When Sally announced that she would no longer be leading our We Care visitation program, it wasn't long before Sharyn McMaster offered to be the ministry leader, and she has proven that she has a real heart for reaching out to our shut-ins and our seniors at home. So far, she has facilitated two visits (you can read about the most recent one in this newsletter) and both times, those members who were visited were very appreciative. Sharyn, just like all the other We Care leaders we have had through the years, has a caring and thoughtful nature, qualities that are necessary in connecting with elderly folks, and she planned these initial visits in an efficient and organized manner. You can be sure that the visits she plans throughout the rest of this year will be a blessing to all who are visited as well as to the volunteers who are visiting them!

DING-A-LINGS

Our other ministry that didn't skip a beat (both literally and figuratively) when new leadership was needed is our Ding-a-Ling handbell choir. As the choir's only director, Kendra had faithfully led the handbells for many years and she truly wanted this worship ministry to continue. When Melissa Painter agreed to become the new director, it was 'music to the ears' of the current ringers. The group began practicing under Melissa's direction in March and they played for our worship service on May 8th. Just as Kendra did, Melissa has worked with the Ding-a-Lings in such a competent and caring manner, always displaying a great amount of patience during each practice. The handbell choir is glad to know that Melissa has already begun looking at music as she plans to resume rehearsals in the fall!

In regard to both of these ministries, having these two women step up to the plate when new leadership was needed has been a blessing both to our participants as well as those people who are blessed by the ministries' work. If you are interested in joining either of these ministries, you can call Sharyn (412-952-6933) or Melissa (724-316-3674) or check in with me at the church office (724-452-8120). In each of the months ahead, I will be highlighting news about our other volunteer ministries, so stay tuned!

ADDITIONAL THANKS TO THE FOLLOWING:

To everyone who contributed to our recent Meals on Wheels dessert donation (three weeks of supplying various goodies was a very commendable effort) and also to those of you who consistently contribute to the needs of the Food Cupboard (St. Peter's representative is Cath Rape) by supplying food for each month and for those of you who help during the monthly packing or distribution times. These two community outreaches continue to be vital to those people who have ongoing needs to have meals or food supplied to them and how wonderful it is that St. Peter's can take part with the other churches and other organizations around the area to meet these needs!

To those of you who volunteered to go to Pine Valley Camp on May 7th to fix and spruce up what was necessary to have done in several cabins. According to Sara and Matt Jacobs who organized the project (and we thank them for doing that), the work got done easily and relatively quickly, and there was a lot of camaraderie and good fellowship among the volunteers. Being 'hands on' and doing what needed to be done had to have brought a great deal of joy to the Pine Valley staff!

In closing, at the beginning of this article, I referenced the name change of this position from 'Director of Volunteer Ministries' to 'Director of Outreach Ministries' and I realized how well the new title connects with our current mission statement, which is found on the back of our weekly bulletin (and I hope that after you read the mission statement printed below you can see that all the people and the ministries mentioned above are living it out very well). As you read the mission statement, think about how your life already reflects what is stated and then as a follow-up, think and pray about what God might be calling you to do to fulfill the mission statement with even more purposeful resolve in the future. I know this is what my plan will be, and I know that the rewards will be great! Here is our current mission statement: 'To know, love, and follow Jesus Christ as devoted disciples by doing together what we cannot do alone in reaching the least, the lost, and the lonely by reaching up, reaching out, and reaching in.' To be St. Peter's Director of Outreach Ministries is not only a wonderful privilege, but a tremendous opportunity to be 'the hands and feet of Jesus' in the ways that He calls me to serve! Blessings to each of you in your zeal to serve our Savior and Lord Jesus Christ and keep 'reaching' - because He is always there!

Library Highlights for June -

READ All About It!

Now that June is upon us, it's time to relax and read, and the truth is that when you read a good book, it's a very relaxing way to spend your time!

The first two books are new non-fiction books and the last two books are new fiction.

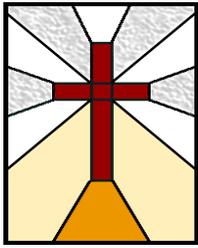

“The Red Sea Rules” 10 God-Given Strategies for Difficult Times by Robert J. Morgan: ‘Just as Moses and the Israelites found themselves caught between “the devil and the deep Red Sea,” so are we sometimes overwhelmed by life’s problems. The Red Sea Rules reveals that even in the midst of seemingly impossible situations God promises to make a way for us. His loving guidance will protect us through danger, illness, martial strife, financial problems, or whatever challenges Satan places in our path. Using the Israelites’ story in Exodus 14 as an example, Robert Morgan offers ten sound strategies for moving from fear to faith. Life is hard, especially for Christians. It is certain that we will face difficulties, and that God will allow them, as He allowed the Israelites to become trapped between Pharaoh’s rushing armies and the uncrossable Red Sea. But just as certain is the fact that the same God who led us in will lead us out. As The Red Sea Rules makes comfortingly clear. He is in control.’

“When A Nation Forgets God” 7 Lessons We Must Learn from Nazi Germany by Erwin W. Lutzer: ‘In When a Nation Forgets God, Erwin Lutzer studies seven similarities between Nazi Germany and America today—some of them chilling—and cautions us to respond accordingly. Engaging, well-researched, and easy to understand, the book explains the messes of our nation’s government, economy, legal pitfalls, and propaganda and points to the God who always has a plan. In the early twentieth century, Germany didn’t look like a country on the brink of world-shaking terrors. It looked like America today. When a Nation Forgets God uses history to warn us of a future that none of us wants to see. It urges us to speak up, take action, and trust in God.’

“Sunrise” by Susan May Warren, Book 1 in the Sky King Ranch series: ‘After a terrible family fight, pilot Dodge Kingston left home to join the Air Force. A decade later, he’s headed back to the destiny that awaits him as heir to Sky King Ranch. But that’s not all that’s waiting for him at home. Echo Yazzie is a true Alaskan woman—a homesteader, dogsledder, and research guide for the DNR. After her childhood best friend and former flame, Dodge, fled Denali, she settled into life on the Alaskan range. She’s made her peace with being left behind—by her mother and by Dodge. And she’s strong enough to live without them. When one of Echo’s fellow researchers goes missing, Echo sets out to find her, despite a blizzard, a rogue grizzly haunting the woods, and the biting cold. What she doesn’t know is that there are more than just the regular dangers of the Alaskan forests stalking her... As Dodge sets out to find Echo, he can’t ignore the feelings he still has for her. But will he be able to find her in time? And if he does, is there still room for him in her heart?’

“The Catch” by Lisa Harris, Book 3 in the US Marshals series: ‘After a harrowing attempt on a judge’s life at the courthouse, Deputy US Marshals Madison James and Jonas Quinn are tasked with finding a missing woman and an endangered child in connection to the murder of the judge’s wife. What seems like a fairly straightforward case becomes hopelessly tangled when the marshals discover that the woman they are searching for is not who they think she is. Madison and Jonas are forced into a race to find the woman and the child before the people who want her dead discover her location. And in a final showdown that could cost her everything, Madison will come face-to-face with the person who murdered her husband.’

Remember that there are lots of great books in our church library to take a chance on as we head into these relaxing summer months ahead, so come on in and check them out!
Happy June reading!!

UGANDA MISSION TEAM UPDATE

Hello St. Peter's,

As the summer months are upon us, we are getting ready for upcoming events for our team. We recently catered to the Allegheny County Fire Academy and were able to raise a couple hundred dollars. We have our monthly dinner on Friday, June 10th. Along with the dinner in July, we will also hold our annual yard sale during the Zelienople Horse Trading Days. The sale will be on Saturday, July 23rd with drop off of items on Friday (7/22) between Noon and 6 p.m. or you can bring them on Saturday morning.

None of these events bring in huge amounts of money, but when you combine them all, we raise enough to accomplish our goals. We always need your support in each event. This is also a time for team members to work together and educate others that might be interested in joining our team. If you are thinking about joining us someday, come to a dinner and see what we do, ask any one of us. The trip is truly a life changing event.

God Bless,

Uganda Mission Trip Team

THANKS YOU'S

Dear St. Peter's Church Family,

A heartfelt thank you to the members of St. Peter's for all of the cards, prayers and good thoughts we received during Paul's illness and on his death. It's wonderful to know you are supported by such a loving congregation. A special thank you to Nancy Korczynski and all the ladies who helped with the dinner, it was delicious. Thanks to Scott for running the slide show and Pastor Moon for visiting Paul.

*God Bless You All,
Karen Rader and Family*

Dear St. Peter's Church Family,

*I can't thank everyone enough for your prayers, concerns, cards and rides for my most recent surgery and recovery. A little extra kudos for worker-bees Larry and Karen Martino for the grass mowing I wasn't able to do and more. All was made possible thru the hands of our awesome God.
