A PUBLICATION OF ST. PETER'S REFORMED CHURCH

The Joyful Noiseletter

A Mother Who Prays

My mother was instrumental in my own conversion, as she led me through the gospel as a four year old, when I prayed with her to receive Christ, as she sat in her rocking chair in the nursery of our house. Needless to say, I am a firm believer that it is hard to find a greater power on this planet than a mother who prays to the Lord. President Lincoln once wrote "I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life." No doubt, many of us are who we are (and where we are) today because a mother had prayed for us. This is especially true of praying for the salvation of their children. In his own testimony, St. Augustine wrote of his mother, Monica, as one "now gone from my sight, who for years had wept over me, that I might live in your [God's] sight.". If you're a praying mother, in any phase of life, who is reading this, I have little doubt that you're tired, that your tank is empty. Consider these words a little encouragement boost, reminding you that you're not only doing a good thing in praying for your children daily, but that you need not grow weary in doing that good thing (Gal. 6:9). In light of that, consider the prayers of three mothers in scripture, each at a different juncture of the situation which they were praying for:

- Hannah, a prayer of trust before: "O Lord of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your servant and remember me and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a son, then I will give him to the Lord all the days of his life ... I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord" (1 Sam. 1:11, 15)
- Mary, a prayer of trust during: "Behold, I am the servant [Greek "slave"] of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word." (Luke 1:38)
- Miriam, a prayer of trust after: "Sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously" (Ex. 15:21)

Mothers, no matter what phases of the situation they are in (in their own lives or the lives of their children), find their strength in surrendering it... and themselves... to God, in the sweet and intimate communion of prayer. I am who I am today because my mother Terri [now with the Lord], my mother-in-law Jeanie [who went to be with the Lord last December], and my stepmother Aimee are godly women who committed to pray for me daily. I put forth that all of us ought to follow the example of godly mothers praying daily for our children... and for everything life puts before us. That is also why I'm glad that the National Day of Prayer is this month as well, and I hope you'll all take part in that. Happy Mothers Day to all the St. Peter's mothers. I pray we all join you in fervent prayer... for our families... for our church ... for our nation... and most importantly, for the Kingdom of God. ~Pastor David

St. Peter's is looking for a few members to be delegates at the 2024 Annual Gathering - The Great Multitude this year!!

After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were hold palm branches in their hands.

And they cried out in a loud voice:

“Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

(Revelation 7:9-10)

The theme of this year's Annual Gathering is centered on our value of “A Membership Reflective of the Harvest Field's Diversity”. It is our desire to impact our current generation with the message of the Gospel. We are confident that this will lead to a more diverse membership, with churches and pastors who are younger and represent new ethnic groups coming to our country. The theme scripture reminds us that our focus as a Christ-centered Congregational Conference remains the same, even as our membership becomes more diverse.

UGANDA MISSION (TPL) TEAM NEWS

Greetings St. Peter's,

We have a couple of announcements for you this month about some fundraising we are doing. In addition to the monthly dinners, we also have been making 6 inch Italian hoagies. They are $6.00 each and really yummy. We have been selling over a hundred each month and would like to sell more. Please see Jim Schulz to give him your order. To make it easy for you, they are available for pick up at the monthly dinner the second Friday of each month.

We also have a raffle for a helicopter tour of your choice. This tour is by Spiker Helicopters and it departs from the Zelenople airport. You can check out their website at spikerhelicopters.com for more information on their tours. The voucher is for $600 and if you don't want the helicopter tour, you can take the cash instead. The drawing is based on the evening Pick 3 lottery on May 27. Tickets are $5.00 each. See any team member for purchase.

Now for the big news, Mark Bishop is coming back on October 12. Details for times and tickets will be available soon. Please remember, all these fundraisers help us with travel expenses and projects that we do in Uganda.

We are currently working on supporting our small orphanage with a new director and a new and better place for the children to live. Much of this is in the planning stage, but those who have sponsored children, fear not, your funds are helping them till we get through this transition. You have heard our stories and seen our presentations. We really need your help and support to continue to show the love of Christ to our neighbors across the globe. We are always excited to tell you about our trips so if you have any questions, grab one of us and ask. You will surely see our faces light up. There is always room on our Uganda team whether the USA or African side. We would welcome you to join us. Just let us know if you are interested.

God Bless,

Uganda Mission TPL

Library Highlights for May - READ All About It!

As we move into the month of May with (hopefully!!) warmer spring weather upon us, let us all enjoy reading our books outside as we soak up some sun and dig into some good books!

The following five fiction books have recently be purchased for the library:

“Driving Force” by Lynette Eason presents Kate Angelo: ‘Elite Guardians Bodyguard/Former Sniper Christina Sherman has protected uncooperative clients before—but this time, well her client is bossy, headstrong and occasionally eats off the floor. Yes, he’s a highly trained military working dog, but certainly her skills could be put to better use, right? Not according to former Special Forces Air Commando Grey Parker. He needs her help to protect his dog while he undergoes an experimental surgery that could restore this ability to walk. He just needs someone to keep his canine partner safe. Most of all, Grey wants back on his feet so he can track down a deranged scientist known as The Scavenger who unleashed a nerve agent that left Grey sidelined in a wheelchair. When an attempt is made on Grey’s life, and dead bodies begin piling up—with evidence the same toxin is responsible—suddenly Christina is tasked with keeping both dog and soldier alive... and with them, the secrets that could stop a terrorist attack. But this time, even Christina might be in over her head. Dive into the exciting ignition to the Elite Guardians Collection.’

“Impending Strike” by Lynette Eason presents Sami A. Abrams: ‘Elite Guardian Charlie Lee knows there is no future with the woman he secretly loves—fellow Guardian Lizzie Tremaine. But Lizzie’s a single mom focused on protecting her daughter, and Charlie’s got his own baggage. It’s easier, and safer, to keep things the way they are. Then, the unthinkable happens. While Charlie is undercover, he’s seriously injured... and his memory of the past four years is gone. But maybe it’s the fresh start he didn’t know he longed for. Lizzie’s lost all the men she’s ever loved and can’t risk her heart again. Still, she’s determined to protect Charlie, and help him discover who attacked him—and why. But Charlie seems to have forgotten their reasons for keeping things platonic. She needs things to go back to normal, stat. Problem is, the closer he gets to uncovering his memories, the closer he gets to trouble. It’s her heart... or his life. Protecting him just might cost her everything. Another edge-of-your-seat Elite Guardians thriller!’

“Defending Honor” by Lynette Eason presents Kelly Underwood: ‘Laila Rabbinowitz is all business. Tough and stoic, she was the perfect Mossad agent... until a terrible betrayal led to her worst nightmare. Being a bodyguard with the Elite Guardians allows her to keep her heart safe—she’ll never let anyone close enough to betray her again. And she’s certainly not going to trust anyone who doesn’t earn it. Billionaire and former playboy Preston Whittaker walked away from his famous family after a terrible event, but then this father and brother are killed in a suspicious boating accident. Since he’s next in line to helm the family business, now someone wants him dead. Preston needs 24/7 protection, and the only solution is a fake marriage. In order to keep him safe, Laila will have to convince everyone that she and Preston are in love. She’s used to putting her life on the line for a client. But what will this case cost her heart? Book three of the riveting, high-octane world of the Elite Guardians reboot!’

“Sandcastle Inn” Book 10 of A Hope Harbor series by Irene Hannon: ‘Vienna Price never intended to return for more than a passing visit to Hope Harbor and al the bad memories she’d left behind. But when your career tanks, home is where you go to nurse your wounds and chart a new course. Only temporarily, of course—because as much as she loves her quirky mom, anything more than a short stay would drive them both crazy. A trip to Oregon isn’t in Matt Quinn’s plan either, until a perfectly timed appeal for help arrives from his sister. What better place to decompress after a shattering loss than a quiet, seaside town maned Hope Harbor? But R&R isn’t on the agenda when he arrives to find his sister’s new enterprise on life support. Vienna may have just the skills needed to resuscitate the foundering B&B—if Matt can convince her to hang around long enough to mend an inn... and his heart.’

“The Shifting Current” by Dani Pettrey: ‘When Coast Guard Investigative Service Special Agent Logan Perry’s beloved grandfather is murdered, he gets on the first flight to his hometown of Cauldron Creek, New Mexico. His teammate, friend, and the woman he secretly loves, Emmy Thorton, joins him. Emmy knows Logan will pursue the investigation no matter the cost. She won’t let the man she loves go alone. She needs to be at his side, even if believes she’s going simply out of friendship. What looks like a robbery gone wrong rapidly shifts, drawing Emmy and Logan into a dizzying maze where nothing is as it appears. Their only lead is a female drifter who’s always one step ahead. Every clue slips through their fingers as threats against them grow deadlier. Having only each other to rely on, their love for one another deepens, but will they live long enough to admit it?’

Please consider checking out these books or any others in our church library - happy reading!!

THANK YOU'S

To my friends at St. Peter's,

I want to thank you so much for the continued thoughts and prayers. It has been a comfort to know there are so many caring folks and I am very grateful for all of you.

May God Bless you all,
Sharon Wehr

Dear St. Peter's,

Thank you so much for your generous donation. We continue to work with law enforcement to bring predators that are hunting our children to justice. We are also very committed to educating students on the dangers of 'grooming' by predators on social media.

Blessings,
Sue Sweeney/CFO; Co-Founder
The Asservo Project Team

Dear Friends at St. Peter's,

Thank you so much for your gift of $775 for my ministry with Cru! Your increased giving is a huge blessing to me. I am grateful for your faithfulness in giving and praying. Both investments are a crucial part of the work of reaching this generation of students with the gospel. There is so much competing for their worship and loyalty and so few to tell them about the God who loves them. You are making an eternal difference in many lives!

In Christ,
Elise Boros

Dear St. Peter's,

I want to thank you very much for all the beautiful birthday cards and all the telephone calls I received from you for my 89th birthday. I really appreciate your thoughtfulness. May the Lord richly bless you. I miss seeing you.

In Christ's Love,
Lois Knauf

Dear St. Peter's,

At different times of the year, MAF planes act as school buses, transporting kids, teachers, and support staff to and from their schools. Recently in Papua, Indonesia, a group of middle school students from a mountain village took their very first ride on an MAF plane, which took them to a city where they will continue their educational journey at a Christian school. Your recent gift (Holy Week communion offering) is making a difference in the lives of these students. It's just one of the many ways MAF seeks to serve the holistic needs of isolated people. God is using you to make Jesus' name known in remote regions of the world. Thank you!

With gratitude,

REACHING OUT THROUGH OUTREACH MINISTRIES

by Pam North

WILLING WORKERS OPPORTUNITY

Last year we advertised for people to sign up if they would like to be 'Willing Workers' for those people in our congregation who might need to have someone lend them a helping hand. We currently have a list of 21 people who have signed up to help in various ways, so as spring has continued to unfold its beauty, you may be someone who needs to have some things done outside (and inside, too) because you aren't as able to do as much as you used to do. If that is the case, all you need to do is to contact the church office (724-452-8120) and talk with Sheri or me and we can contact someone who can use their particular skills in order to help you with whatever need you might have (and if your need involves transportation or shopping or something else, we can help with that, too.) Here is a list of all the potential ways of helping that our willing workers have signed up to do:

- 1) Transport people to doctor appointments, medical treatments, the hairdresser, and shopping for groceries or other necessities
- 2) Do grocery (or other) shopping
- 3) Provide meals
- 4) Provide cleaning services
- 5) Provide 'handyman' services
- 6) Do yard work (including planting flowers)
- 7) Provide companionship
- 8) Babysit

Please consider letting someone (or more than one person) help you with what you need to have done. And one reminder – in general, most of these tasks will be considered more 'short-term' in nature. We look forward to helping any of you, not just at this season of the year, but anytime. Just give us a call!

P.S. For anyone who would like to sign up to be a 'Willing Worker', there will be an insert in the bulletin for the next several weeks. You can put your completed insert in the offering plates or bring it to the welcome center desk. If you have any questions, please call Sheri or me at the church office (724-452-8120).

May all of you enjoy every day of this wonderful spring season as its beauty continues to unfold – here is a message from the Old Testament book of King Solomon's 'Song of Songs' that supports our need to both open our eyes to the magnificence of God's creation and then to thank Him for this daily gift!

Song of Songs – Chapter 2: 11-12

“See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone (well, not quite at this point)

The flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come, and the cooing of doves is heard in our land.”

The 'We Care' visit recap:

The We Care visits that took place on Apr 8, 9 & 10 were enjoyed by All! Besides good talk and laughter, we also learn very interesting things and events of local history. The gifts this time were various spring themed plaques to hang on their doors or walls. They brought smiles and thanks of appreciation.

We visited Suzie Rape, Birdetta Kennedy, Ralph Geis, Jean Wittenmeyer, Joanne Kampas, Eleanor Kennedy, Linda Rape, Millie Waybright, Esther & Russell Robertson, Larry Rape, Debbie Kirsch, Sandra & Gayle Butcher, Paul & LaVada George and Janet Rogan. A gracious thank you to them for opening their homes to us. Unable to be visited were Sue Frankenstein, Earl Gilliland and Shirley Allmann.

Many thanks to those who were able to visit: Marla Clouse, Lynn Meyers, Pam North, Gary & Shirley Knauff, Ginni Smoke, Cathy Rape, Juanita Barna, Sally Hamilton, Dick Powell, Tim McMaster, Pastor David, Karen Rader and me. Other members of our group who were unable to visit this time were Sandy Lee, Syd & Joan Schiever, Pam Bintrim, Thelma Jacobs, Cathy Powell, Kay O'Neill & Catherine Thornberry.

Our next visits will take place in June. Visits are every other month, and we encourage you to join us. And we know that not everyone can visit every time. If interested, please contact me, 724-452-9745 or 412-952-6933 or Pam North at the church office 724-452-8120. And if you know someone who may like a visit, contact Pastor David or Pam. Thank you.

Pentecost Sunday Communion May 19, 2024 Angel Tree Camping, Prison Fellowship

Angel Tree Camping®, Prison Fellowship® is making camp possible for children with incarcerated parents.

From rope swings and zip lines to horseback riding and swimming, a week with Angel Tree Camping is a chance for these kids to have fun, fellowship with their peers, build relationships with caring camp counselors, and just "be a kid."

An extension of Prison Fellowship's Angel Tree® Christmas program, Angel Tree Camping began in 2002 with a generous donation that fully funded camps to sponsor Angel Tree children for several years.

While Prison Fellowship does not directly operate any camp facilities, we rely on partnerships with well-established Christian camp organizations nationwide to sponsor children of prisoners. We support children through partial or full scholarships, and we connect our camping ministry partners with potential campers and the churches that serve them at Christmas.

Some partner camps offer a special session just for Angel Tree campers. Others serve Angel Tree kids throughout their summer season. Angel Tree provides guidance and resources to help churches explain the benefits of camp to the children's caregivers, complete the sign-up process, and help provide any supplies the kids will need for camp. Volunteers receive a supply of quality tote bags and Bibles—one for every sponsored child. And no child leaves camp without hearing the message of Christ's love.

For Angel Tree inquiries call 1-800-55-ANGEL (2-6435).
